

Medieval Knight's Seal, France, 13th-14th Century.

320 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wax

Diameter : 4 cm

Description

A rare circular brown wax knight's seal, complete with its original attachment to two parchment tails, which was used to secure it to the document it once authenticated. The obverse is marked with a shield bearing three escutcheons, corresponding to the arms of the Bourbers family. In heraldry, this coat of arms is described as "or, three escutcheons gules," meaning a yellow field adorned with three small red shields. The reverse is blank. The Boubers family was a knightly lineage rooted in Picardy, a region where they were lords of lands situated between Amiens and Arras. Diameter: 4 cm. A rare piece on the art market.
