Description

An elegant and refined Smith Console Table, this extraordinary Neapolitan console table from the early 19th century is a masterpiece of historic cabinetmaking. Crafted from precious mahogany, it features the highest quality workmanship, embellished with exquisite maple inlays that enhance its architectural movement and decorative richness. The original and beautifully preserved Verde delle Alpi marble top adds a further touch of luxury, harmoniously complementing the warmth of the mahogany and the luminosity of the inlays. The finely carved legs and the upper frieze, featuring neo-Gothic motifs and subtle wood carvings, testify to the mastery of Neapolitan artisans and the influence of international taste of the period. A piece of great charm and rarity, ideal for enhancing classic
