Description

This Louis XV style side table captivates with the elegance of its marquetry top, adorned with a delicate floral design blending light and stained wood, harmoniously arranged on a rosewood veneer background. The tabletop, highlighted by an inverted quarter-round molding, underscores the refinement of its design and the quality of its craftsmanship. The shaped and molded apron extends this supple and refined line, while the four cabriole legs lend the whole a graceful and typically Louis XV silhouette. Each leg is adorned with gilt bronze foliate drops, complemented by a trim at the base, adding a further touch of refinement and highlighting the attention to detail. As decorative as it is functional, this table embodies the charm and craftsmanship of 18th-century-inspired furniture,
