Description

Antique Louis XV Period Longcase Clock - Solid Walnut - 18th Century. This elegant antique Louis XV period longcase clock, crafted from solid wood in the 18th century, boasts a beautiful, slender silhouette with a glazed upper section and a richly molded body. The piece comprises three parts: a glass-fronted upper section, a carved central section, and a molded base. The glazed upper door houses the clock movement (mechanism not present), while the central section is adorned with molded panels and carved relief decoration, typical of the Louis XV style. The curved cornice and rounded moldings lend the piece an elegant and decorative line. The wide, stable base ensures the clock stands firmly on its own. It can be used as: an antique clock case, a decorative piece, a narrow display cabinet,
