Description

An elegant ring crafted in rose gold, characteristic of 1950s and 60s designs, where the warmth of the metal and strong lines blend harmoniously. It features an emerald-cut citrine of approximately 9.50 carats, with a luminous, sunlit hue, whose cut emphasizes the stone's transparency and depth. The setting, with its understated yet structured design, highlights the generous size and natural brilliance of the citrine. A piece of jewelry with vintage charm, both bold and refined, reflecting an elegant and distinctive era.
