3 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Delicate and luminous, this Flower ring is crafted in white gold, highlighting the finesse of its floral motif. It is adorned with marquise-cut sapphires totaling approximately 1 carat, arranged in graceful petals, accompanied by baguette-cut diamonds of approximately 0.20 carats and old-cut diamonds of approximately 0.11 carats, adding depth and brilliance to the whole. The harmony of the different stone sizes creates a subtle and refined play of light, emphasizing the delicate design of the flower. An elegant and timeless piece, combining poetry, sophistication, and masterful jewelry-making.
