Description

A remarkable Marguerite ring crafted in white gold and platinum, a noble combination that enhances the purity of the design and the brilliance of the stones. It features an exceptional oval sapphire of approximately 10.50 carats, with a deep and majestic color, the true heart of the composition. This sapphire is surrounded by old-cut diamonds totaling approximately 0.60 carats, whose soft and vibrant light delicately highlights the emblematic floral motif of the "Marguerite" setting. A rare and spectacular piece, combining intensity, elegance, and masterful jewelry-making, destined for connoisseurs of distinctive and exceptional jewelry.
