Description

Oil on canvas. Original canvas. Signed and dated. In this indescribable work, dating from the year of the White Album, the young mystic stands like a counter-culture Venus, her profile silhouetted against an abyss of liquid consciousness where magical realism and psychedelia collide in a lysergic initiation rite. A pale crescent moon presides over an inner cosmos, the eternal night of the soul from which emerge fantastic creatures like visions of the skull, a procession of marine deities and emerald specters, sometimes benevolent, sometimes malevolent--a feast of unbridled imagination that pays homage to sovereign femininity at the height of its youth. Her tunic, strewn with spores of light and shadow, is a shroud of stars, a reflection of her inner being that defies material reality, evoking a
