Description

Mattia Traverso's painting "Bacchanal or Allegory of Summer" depicts a joyous Bacchanal or Allegory of Summer scene in the pure spirit of ancient tapestries. The composition features a group of figures celebrating abundance, with a young man pouring a basket of fruit at the feet of an elegant woman accompanied by a dog. In the background, a figure carrying sheaves of wheat and a young Bacchus with bunches of grapes complete this festive tableau. The scene is framed by a magnificent trompe-l'oeil painted border imitating gilded wood with garlands of flowers and fruit. Mattia Traverso, born in Genoa in 1885 and died in 1956, was a highly talented Italian painter renowned for his exceptional technical mastery and his taste for grandly decorated classical scenes, which allowed him to revive the
