Description

Painting by Mattia Traverso, "Diana and Her Retinue." This early 20th-century painting by Mattia Traverso elegantly depicts Diana, the goddess of the hunt, in a mythological scene inspired by 18th-century decor. The goddess is shown seated on a golden chariot, accompanied by her retinue of nymphs and cherubs. Diana is recognizable by her crescent moon on her forehead and her bow, while a stag led by putti escorts the procession through a forest. The scene is surrounded by a particularly rich trompe-l'oeil border imitating a sculpted and gilded frame laden with garlands of fruit, flowers, and decorative medallions. Mattia Traverso, born in Genoa in 1885 and died in 1956, was a highly talented Italian painter renowned for his exceptional technical mastery and his taste for
