Description

Charming silk thread embroidery on silk, Restauration period, signed and dated "Ue Masson, pupil of Mr Comunal in Agen, 1819." Period giltwood frame with beaded and moulded decoration (in need of restoration). This work reflects the teaching of decorative arts in early 19th-century girls' boarding schools. The scene shows a vase overflowing with flowers surrounded by a rooster, a hen, and their chicks, rendered with remarkable delicacy. The composition combines naturalistic observation with the decorative sensibility characteristic of its time. Condition: some wear and foxing consistent with age; frame requires complete restoration. Dimensions (cm): 56 × 56.5 - 49 × 49.5 without frame. Condition: some wear and foxing consistent with age; frame requires
