Description

We present here two Views of the Seine in Paris. These small oil paintings on cardboard, one very sketchy, depicts the Passerelle des Arts, and the second, shown below, shows the Pont Neuf. This latter sketch bears the signature of the painter André Lucas, active in Paris and the Nantes region during the 20th century. For these two sketches, we propose a modern and elegant mounting consisting of a wooden box within which a black support is set, which particularly highlights these two emblematic views of historic Paris.
