Description

We present this spectacular and rare pair of Italian wrought iron headboards dating back to the early 19th century. Their stylistic features place them within the typical Northern Italian production of the city of Genoa. They feature elaborate wrought iron decorations with numerous curls, scrolls, and brass knobs. The iron is entirely handcrafted, as evidenced by the numerous detailed photos that highlight the craftsmanship (see hand-hammered nails). The iron is embellished with hand-painted gold ornamental details, adding a unique visual touch. Furthermore, the central medallions feature a delightful hand-painted floral decoration, each headboard unique. They are in good condition with signs of wear consistent with their age (see all photos). Please note that for an item like this, any signs of wear are a characteristic that enhances its value and distinctive character. You can consider using this pair of headboards for two single beds or placing them side by side for a double bed. With their historic charm, these two headboards are perfect for any bedroom (classic, modern, antique) where you'd like a distinctive element. IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING DIMENSIONS: The measurements shown are for a single headboard. Both headboards must be fixed to the wall; this service is not included in the delivery. We recommend using small wall anchors. If you require assistance, please contact us with advice or questions.
