Description

A substantial Louis XIII style oak table, resting on four turned legs connected by an H-shaped stretcher. The generously thick (7 cm) top is composed of wide, antique planks, displaying a warm patina and signs of wear consistent with its age. The piece is stable and functional. A rustic work of art with a striking presence, ideal as a farmhouse table, reception table, or large dining table. Please note: wear, minor losses, and old restorations are visible, particularly on the top and frame, but these do not affect its sturdiness. Dimensions: Length: 303 cm Width: 100 cm Height: 75 cm Tabletop thickness: 7 cm Delivery upon request, depending on destination.
