Description

Owning a piece of sacred art is not just about decorating a space; it is about connecting with history and devotion. This 19th-century processional banner, oil on canvas, depicting Mary and Jesus, represents a great opportunity within my collection for discerning collectors and art lovers alike. The work is distinguished by its high pictorial quality, a testament to the master craftsmanship of the 1800s. Featuring an excellent period patina that enhances its authenticity and the vibrancy of its colors, the banner boasts a unique feature: it is painted on both sides, offering a complete and evocative view of the sacred figures. Measuring 70 cm (H) x 40 cm, it has a majestic and solemn presence, capable of enriching any setting with a touch of elegance and spirituality. The integrity of the work
