

Merovingian Limestone Sarcophagus

3 800 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Stone

Description

Merovingian sarcophagus in limestone typical of the southwest region. The lid is complete in three pieces. The basin is in several pieces but restorable. Provenance: This sarcophagus had been in the grounds of a château in the Entre-Deux-Mers region for about a hundred years. Similar sarcophagi are kept at the Abbey of La Réole. Width: 100 cm, Length: 210 cm

Dealer

François de Bonfils

Generaliste

Mobile : 0608056451

22 Avenue d'Embeyres

Vayres 33870