Description

An elegant orange opaline glass vase created by Carlo Scarpa (Venice 1906 - Sendai 1978) for Venini, featuring a simple, cylindrical shape with great formal balance. The intense, luminous color, typical of post-World War II Murano glass production, gives the piece a powerful presence, while the purity of the lines reflects the renowned designer's modern and refined style. The vase is acid-etched on the bottom. ADDITIONAL
