Description

Spectacular and large oval mirror in giltwood. Dating from the 19th century and in the Rococo style, this large mirror is decorated all around with openwork carving. The ornamentation consists of flowers, rosettes, and scrolls, with large, scalloped leaves at the top. The central mirror is encircled by a band of palmettes. The entire piece, crafted from giltwood, is finely carved and in very good condition. A high-quality work in excellent condition, very decorative.
