Description

An Unrepeatable Opportunity for Collectors and Art Lovers. We are proud to present, among our exclusive offerings, this magnificent pair of wooden corner cabinets from 1850, once housed in a prestigious noble palace. These are not merely pieces of furniture, but true works of art with a grand stage presence, capable of transforming any setting into a private gallery. The heart of this proposal lies in the extraordinary pictorial quality: the doors of the corner cabinets depict four famous paintings by the master of Italian Romanticism, Francesco Hayez. These masterpieces, masterfully reproduced, bestow an eternal elegance and an invaluable historical-artistic value upon the furniture. The corner cabinets themselves, dating back to the second half of the 19th century, tell a fascinating story. Originally created only as decorative front panels, the back was added later to make them functional pieces of furniture. In the early 20th century, they were skillfully painted, integrating the reproductions of Hayez's paintings. With an imposing height of 225 cm, a front width of 66 cm, and a depth of 37 cm, their presence is monumental. Quality is absolutely guaranteed!! Do not miss out on this great opportunity.
