contrast between light and shadow, our canvas is a very interesting testimony to his painting. His Venetian views are bathed in a kind of fluidity that caresses the volumes with great delicacy, capturing all the atmosphere and charm of what is considered the most fascinating city in the world through an incredible selection of colours and a magical light effect. The author has here excellently expressed his extraordinary painting skills with an atmosphere imbued with poetry, which lends itself well to defining the unique characteristics that distinguish each and every view of Venice. The canvas is in excellent condition. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: The work is sold complete with a nice frame and comes with a certificate of authenticity and guarantee.
