Description

Cherrywood cabriolet armchair with matching footstool, 20th century, Louis XV style. An elegant set comprising a cabriolet armchair and matching footstool, crafted from molded and carved cherrywood in the Louis XV style. The armchair features a violin-shaped back and armrests with cuffs, resting on cabriole legs typical of the style. The footstool harmoniously echoes the same curved lines and carving, forming a coherent and decorative ensemble. The upholstery, in damask fabric in shades of green and beige, is in good condition and highlights the elegant lines of the furniture. The seats are accentuated by a row of upholstery tacks. The wood has a beautiful, warm patina, with meticulous craftsmanship on the stretchers and legs, particularly evident on the shaped apron of
