Description

Elegant set of four important giltwood candlesticks, carved and finished with mecca gilding, dating from the Louis XVI period, late 18th century. They feature a refined tapered and fluted column structure, decorated with classical leaf motifs typical of the neoclassical style. The upper part is formed as a shaped drip pan resembling a corolla, while the triangular base stands on finely carved paw feet. The mecca gilding retains a beautiful aged patina with wear consistent with age, enhancing their authenticity and charm. Decorative objects of strong visual impact, ideal for classical interiors, consoles or table displays.
