symmetrically on the door and along the front sides, show decorations with stylized floral motifs organized into vertical compositions. The painted frames around the door and the panels use a brick-red tone that defines the perimeter of the structural elements. The external metal hinges are exposed and feature a worked profile. The sides of the wardrobe are left in a natural wood tone, while the base and upper cornice display a faux-marble painted effect. Original and fully functional lock and key. Work carried out on all our furniture: - Structural restoration: reconstruction of small missing parts, closure of any cracks on the back panel, consolidation of deteriorated areas, checking and repair of hardware.- Thorough anti-woodworm treatment.- Interior cleaning and sanitizing.- Exterior finishing with natural beeswax.- Interior finishing with shellac, a natural alcohol-based varnish. Customizations: On request, it is possible to define:- the desired degree of restoration;- customization of the interiors (addition of clothes rails, shelves, dividers, etc.).
