

Qajar Persian Bottle-shaped Vase With Floral And Bird Decoration, 19th Century

680 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

A 19th-century Qajar Persian bottle-shaped vase with floral and bird decoration, made of siliceous ceramic with a beige ground. The surface is covered with a glossy, slightly irregular glaze. The polychrome decoration depicts birds perched amidst flowering branches and foliage. The main colors are blue, green, red, and yellow. The motifs are freely drawn with dark outlines. The overall composition is lively and asymmetrical. This type of colorful, figurative, and naturalistic decoration, inspired by nature, is characteristic of 19th-century Iranian ceramics during the Qajar dynasty. Birds and flowers are frequent motifs in Persian art. The vase demonstrates skilled craftsmanship and great freedom of execution. Very good condition. Production irregularities. No damage, cracks, or chips. The slightly twisted

Dealer

Antiquités MM

Meubles et objets anciens

Mobile : 0633445929

17 Place Maréchal Lyautey

Lyon 69006

neck may be due to the firing process, where the heat may have slightly deformed the ceramic. It may also be due to the handcrafted nature of the piece, without striving for perfect symmetry.

Drying and shrinkage of the material may cause minor deformations. Previous pressure or impact may also have altered the shape. This type of irregularity is common and part of the object's character.

Height 34 cm Diameter 12.5 cm

Carefully packaged Shipping available: France / International Payment: Bank transfer / Credit card in showroom We always reply promptly and thank you for remembering to check your spam folder.

Our email address is: antiquitesmm@gmail.com

*If you would like to see this or other items, we would be happy to welcome you to our showroom