Description

In the late Gothic style, this pedestal features an elegant octagonal structure adorned with ogival arcades on each face. The fine and balanced carving testifies to ancient craftsmanship and refined decorative sensibility. The pedestal rests on a slightly flared, molded base and is topped with a shelf, ideal for displaying a basin, bust, or other garden ornament. The natural patina, marked by time, gives it an authentic charm with shades of blond-grey stone, enriched with traces of lichen and oxidation, highlighting its age and outdoor exposure. Perfectly suited to a garden, courtyard, or characterful interior, this pedestal will bring a touch of classic and timeless elegance. Condition: good overall condition with wear and erosion consistent with its age; minor alterations are visible but do not detract from its
