

Accolay. Elie Barachant (1919-1993). Saint Cannat. Pitcher Decorated With Enameled Birds. Circa 19

180 EUR

Signature : Elie Barachant (1919-1993)

Period : 20th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Ceramic

Height : 21,5 cm

Description

Elie BARACHANT (1919-1993). Saint Cannat. Ceramic pitcher on a pedestal base, decorated with stylized glazed birds. In the base: E. Barachant. St Cannat. Absolutely intact, without any chips, cracks, or repairs. Height: 21.5 cm. In 1947, Elie BARACHANT, who worked with clay from Provins (77), was the first professional potter to come to Accolay. He left the pottery village in 1948 for another important pottery center: Saint Cannat in the South of France.

Dealer

Antiquités de la Cathédrale

Objets de curiosité, de collection, de vitrine et tableaux

Tel : 0667172702

9 Place saint Etienne

Auxerre 89000