

Delftware Bowl Cup - Eighteenth Century

Description

Delftware bowl cup with polychrome decoration in the Kakiemon style, also known as the "quail" style. The rim features four reserves of scholar's instruments surrounded by a green background with daisies. Marked by the Pieter Kocx factory (1701-1722). Eighteenth century. Diameter: 22 cm. Beautiful glaze, rim slightly chipped (See photos). Further information and photos available upon request <https://www.bils-ceramiques.com/fr/>

300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 22cm

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002