Description

A glazed ceramic lamp base signed SISPA, a Savoyard manufacturer associated with the production of Émile Simonod (1893-1977). This piece features a beautiful, rounded shape with a flared neck, enlivened by a stylized vegetal motif in relief against a deep blue background. The decoration, featuring oak leaves and acorns in low relief, showcases a material treatment highly characteristic of Savoyard productions between the two World Wars. The overall decorative style maintains a clear aesthetic, blending regional tradition with Art Deco sensibility. Comparable SISPA pieces regularly appear on the market, notably on Proantic, with this type of decorative vocabulary and glazed surface. The SISPA signature confirms its connection to this sought-after production, prized for the quality of
