Description

Christ on panel with Latin inscriptions "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life," 16th century.
School of the Master of the Emerald Icons (1580-1610). Representation of Christ by an early Italian master of the 16th century, with Latin inscriptions and Christian motifs. Oil on panel.
Excellent quality and condition. Profile of Christ, with two fingers raised in a gesture of blessing.
The devotional scene is framed by symbolic motifs and Latin inscriptions, including the verse from John 14:6, which means "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life." Presented in a later gilt and wood-framed panel with fine details. Dimensions: 53 x 51 cm
