Japanese Enameled Bronze Vase, Meiji Period, 19th Century, Decorated With Religious Ritual Enamel

300 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Diameter : 16 cm

Height : 30 cm

Description

Japanese enameled bronze vase 19th Meiji period with decoration of religious ritual enamelsFrom the Japanese craftsmanship of the Meiji era (1868-1912), this bronze vase is simply spectacular in terms of design and quality of Japanese bronze crafts.The Meiji era stands out for an imperial desire to demonstrate to the entire world the prowess of Japanese craftsmanship in the Western world, by opening up to the whole world and exporting their know-how and luxurious objects, including this bronze vase decorated with religious ritual in polychrome cloisonné enamels in bas-relief.Beyond its appearance in the shape of an amphora and its rich decoration, this vase is a real piece of the history of the art trade between the Japan of the Emperor Meiji and Western Europe including the

Dealer

l'Antochine
Antiquities from XVIIth to XXth century, Religious Art & Asian Arts
Mobile : 0783636220

La Ferté-Saint-Aubin 45240

France of Napoleon III, amateur of objects from Asia, and a budding taste for Japonism.Its consequent size and the quality of work make this vase both a collector's item with decorative purposes as well as a utilitarian object, its generous shape allows it to accommodate a large bouquet of flowers.Fast & neat shipping in France, Europe & worldwide, order it now!DimensionsHeight: 30 cmOverall diameter: 16 cmOpening diameter: 7 cmWeight: 2.5 kg