

Pair Of Decorative French Porcelain Plates, Late 19th - Early 20th Century

380 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 33 cm

Description

An elegant, scalloped shape with a rocaille decoration, richly enhanced with raised gilding and a raised design on the rim, creating a beautiful effect of texture and depth. Each plate is adorned with a finely hand-painted aquatic scene depicting fish swimming among reeds. The decoration is exquisite, with subtle effects of transparency in the water and delicate gold highlights emphasizing the details of the fish and vegetation. The rim is partially decorated with stylized floral motifs in gilding on an ochre background. The pieces bear a handwritten signature within the decoration, attesting to workshop production. Diameter: 33 cm
