Description

Elegant and refined, this portrait of a young woman, signed J. Hallez, captivates with its delicate execution and gentle expression. The artist subtly captures the model's features, highlighting the luminosity of her complexion and the subtlety of the fabrics, in a composition that is both understated and timeless. Painted on a rectangular canvas, the work has been presented in an oval frame, a fairly common practice that harmoniously frames the subject and lends it a highly sought-after classical charm. The work is signed within the rabbet, a discreet detail attesting to its authenticity. The painter, identified by the signature J. Hallez, remains undetermined to this day. Nevertheless, the quality of execution, the finesse of the modeling, and the mastery of light testify to an accomplished artist, perfectly in
