Luigi Deleidi, "Landscape with Snow," oil on canvas, 19th century
Luigi Deleidi (Bergamo, 1784-1853) "Landscape with Snow" Oil on canvas, 56.5 × 42 cm
Framed, 68 × 54 cm Signed lower right "L D"; full signature on the reverse
A striking winter landscape attributed to Luigi Deleidi, a Bergamo-based artist known by the nickname "Il Nebbia" (The Mist) for his extraordinary ability to render misty and luminous atmospheres. The work depicts a scene animated by figures, immersed in a suspended silence, where the snow softens the contours and unifies the natural and architectural elements. The work fully expresses Deleidi's romantic sensibility, capable of blending observation of reality with a lyrical interpretation of the landscape, rendering an intimate and
