Description

ITALIAN WORK - Art Nouveau PERIOD
Child Seated in a Renaissance/Louis XIII Style
Armchair
Alabaster sculpture depicting a young child, seated dreamily with crossed legs, a book resting on his lap, his face in his hands. The fine modeling highlights the softness of the features and the introspective expression. The carved wooden armchair, in the Renaissance and Louis XIII styles, is upholstered and adorned with decorative gilt nails, featuring a subtly stylized design. The piece rests on an alabaster base.
Period: Late 19th - Early 20th Century
Materials: Alabaster and carved wood
Condition: Very good overall condition
