Description

A superb bust of Napoleon Bonaparte, carved from Carrara marble, renowned for its purity and fine grain. This large sculpture (77 cm high) commands attention and is firmly rooted in the tradition of neoclassical representations of the Emperor. Napoleon is depicted here in bust form, wearing his iconic bicorn hat and a richly detailed double-breasted coat. The sculpting reveals a true attention to detail: precise modeling of the face, a restrained yet determined expression, and a delicate treatment of volumes and textures, particularly on the hat, whose finely textured surface contrasts with the smooth polish of the marble. The piece rests on an integrated pedestal, ensuring natural elegance and perfect stability. The marble displays subtle gray veining, characteristic of Carrara, lending depth and
