Description

A stunning lounge chair and footstool set attributed to Pierre Paulin, a major figure in 20th-century French design, renowned for his organic forms and innovative approach to comfort. This model is distinguished by its enveloping and generous lines, characteristic of Paulin's work, where the form naturally conforms to the body. The design, all curves and no sharp edges, creates a soft and sculptural silhouette, both minimalist and instantly recognizable. The set is upholstered in a deep, vibrant, and elegant red fabric, highlighting the volumes while providing a strong visual presence. The chair offers exceptional comfort thanks to its low frame and carefully considered curves, while the footstool perfectly complements the lounge experience. An iconic piece of modernist design,
