Description

An elegant glazed ceramic box signed by Mithé Espelt, an emblematic artist of the Uzès workshop, renowned for his decorative creations with stylized motifs and a refined palette. This piece is distinguished by its lid adorned with a relief decoration of a tiare flower, rendered in deep shades of blue, enhanced by a crackled gold background characteristic of the artist's work. The whole is framed by an intense blue glaze, creating a rich and luminous contrast. The decoration, both naive and sophisticated, perfectly illustrates Mithé Espelt's world, where nature is reinterpreted with poetry and modernity. The finesse of the glaze and the quality of the workmanship give this box a truly decorative character, as well as collector's appeal. The simple and elegant base highlights the decorated
