Description

Giuseppe Gheduzzi, "Gray Day in Venice," oil on canvas, signed, early 20th century
Giuseppe Gheduzzi Gray Day in Venice Oil on canvas, signed lower left; signature and title on the reverse. A Venetian view depicting a large square dominated by a monumental bridge animated by numerous figures passing by. The balanced and well-structured composition guides the eye along the central axis of the bridge, emphasized by the obelisk and the perspective balustrades, while the lagoon architecture is outlined in the background with sobriety and precision. The scene is bathed in a subdued light, consistent with the title of the work, which helps create a suspended, everyday atmosphere. The tones are delicate and harmonized within a range of grays, beiges, and light greens, enlivened by the discreet presence of
