Description

A Louis XVI style mahogany "chiffonnière" salon table, late 18th century. This elegant mahogany and mahogany veneer salon table features three drawers in three rows, separated by crossbars and highlighted with brass moldings. The tapered legs terminate in brass sabots and are joined by a stretcher. It is topped with a gray Sainte-Anne marble slab, set into a gallery. The drawers are mounted on oak. Parisian work from the late 18th century. Very good condition.
