Description

We present this antique Italian cupboard, crafted in walnut in the mid-19th century. The front features a fine walnut briar veneer. The briar, with its distinctive grain, creates a distinctive visual accent that lends an extremely refined and unique look. This tall cupboard is composed of two distinct parts, making it easy to move.The upper part features glass doors, perfect for displaying your finest tableware and letting your guests admire it. Inside, there are two practical shelves that you can adjust to the desired height thanks to an internal rack.The lower part, with wooden doors, can be used to store tableware or items you prefer not to show to guests. There are also two practical drawers, providing additional space for small items such as cutlery.Aesthetically, this cupboard has a simple
