2 400 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Paper

Width : 367 cm

Height : 171,5 cm

Description

A Japanese six-panel folding screen painted on paper with sumi-e ink on a silver leaf ground, depicting a wide mountain landscape animated by streams, trees, and small figures. In the background, a waterfall descends between the mountains, and a pagoda appears set within the landscape among trees and rocks. Signed in the lower right. Period: Meiji, late 19th century. Dimensions: 171.5 × 367 cm. Condition: The screen is in good condition. There is oxidation to the silver leaf, particularly between the second and third panels and between the fourth and fifth panels; the lacquered frame shows wear consistent with age and use.
