Description

Elegant Tuscan solid wood dining table with four original chairs, dating from the first 20th century.

The table features a sturdy and imposing structure, characterized by turned legs and a richly carved apron with decorative motifs. The base is enhanced by a central turned stretcher that adds both stability and decorative appeal.

The wide and solid tabletop highlights the natural beauty of the wood and the patina developed over time, a testament to its authenticity. The matching chairs feature carved backs with decorative elements typical of Tuscan craftsmanship.

A set full of charm and character, ideal for furnishing dining rooms, rustic interiors, or period homes. Also perfect for interior design projects seeking authentic antique materials.
