

---

"allegory Of History" - Georges Bateau (1866-1931), F. Barbedienne Font

3 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Bronze

Height : 38

Description

Georges Bateau (1881-1964) - Allegory of History Elegant gilt-patinated bronze - Cast signed BarbedienneBeige marble baseSublime allegorical bronze by Georges Bateau, depicting History as a female figure inspired by early Art Deco aesthetics.This work stands out for the harmony of its lines, the purity of its movement, and the finesse of its details--hallmarks of the artist's refined craftsmanship.The sculpture features a fine period cast signed Barbedienne, ensuring exceptional execution quality:precise chiseling, beautifully balanced volumes, and a warm, luminous golden patina that enhances the symbolic and timeless character of the subject.It is displayed on an elegant antic green marble base and a -movable- beige marble base, whose soft tone

Dealer

Bien Beau

Sculptures & Verrerie - XIXe & XXe siècle

Mobile : 0698580485

93 rue du Bac

Paris 75007

contrasts perfectly with the brilliance of the bronze, bringing stability, nobility, and presence to the piece. A rare work on the market, particularly sought after for: - its major allegorical theme, - its Barbedienne foundry quality, - and the signature of Georges Bateau, a key artist of the 1900-1930 period. Signed: "F. Barbedienne Fondateur" and "GEORGES-BATEAU" A precious and highly elegant artwork, ideal for collectors and admirers of early 20th-century French sculpture. Height : 38 cm Very good condition.