Description

A decorative model ship dating from the mid-20th century (1957), meticulously crafted and mounted on a wooden panel. It faithfully reproduces the shape and rigging of a traditional vessel, with refined details that testify to artisanal skill and a rich maritime heritage. Presented as a wall piece, it makes a strong decorative statement and integrates perfectly into a nautical-inspired interior, an office, or a seaside home. A charming example of mid-20th-century maritime decor.
