Description

Jean Laurent (1898-1988) Seascape with a Three-Masted Ship in Stormy Weather, circa 1950. Oil on panel, signed lower right. A beautiful and expressive seascape by Jean Laurent, depicting a three-masted ship braving a rough sea, accompanied by smaller sailing vessels in the distance. Here, the artist displays his sense of movement and dramatic atmosphere, heir to the tradition of 19th-century Dutch masters such as Koekkoek and Hulk. His vibrant palette, combined with confident drawing, lends the scene a narrative intensity characteristic of his work. A fine painting, typical of the maritime output of this sought-after artist. 60 x 40 cm (unframed)
