Description

Description: An elegant 19th-century French mantel clock, finely crafted in gilt bronze and equipped with an eight-day Parisian movement. This piece exemplifies the refinement and decorative sophistication of French clockmaking of the period, combining a sculptural presence with high mechanical precision. Its harmonious proportions and richly gilded surface make it an ideal decorative object for a mantelpiece, console table, or desk, while its Parisian movement underscores its authenticity and horological interest. A timeless and highly decorative example of 19th-century French bronze work.

Dimensions: Height: 37 cm Width: 30 cm Depth: 20 cm Condition: Very good condition for an antique. Minor signs of wear consistent with age.

Movement and case well preserved.
