

Ottoman Empire Naval Officer's Sword, Second Half Of The 19th Century.

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

OTTOMAN EMPIRE NAVAL OFFICER'S SABRE, Second half of the 19th century. 32665 Gilt bronze hilt. Three-branch guard forming an openwork shell with a cabled anchor framed by foliage. Long-tailed pommel decorated with palmettes. Bone grip with brass wire inlay. Ferrule decorated with foliage. Very slightly curved blade with fullers, 77 cm long, acid-etched on each side with a vegetal design, signed at the ricasso "J. NIKITITS ERBEN" on one side, and on the other side an oval with "FH HÖRSTER A SOLINGEN". Wooden scabbard covered in black varnished leather with three large brass mounts decorated with flowers and geometric designs, Orientalist style. Chape with stud and suspension ring, further decorated with an applied cabled anchor; At the rear of the chape, a suspension

Dealer

Bertrand Malvaux

Expert agréé par la CNES Chambre Nationale des Experts
Spécialisés

Tel : 02 40 73 36 00

Mobile : 06 07 75 74 63

22 rue Crébillon

Nantes 44000

ring for belt attachment. Central fitting with a stud and belt loop. The scabbard's tip terminates in a lyre-shaped finial. Ottoman Empire. Second half of the 19th century. Good condition, small cracks at the grip, gilding missing, welded repair at the top of the guard branch, scabbard leather swollen.