Description

Mid-century modern round extendable table
Stylish round dining table with a dark wood finish. The table features a timeless and practical design and is easy to extend thanks to its integrated butterfly extension leaf
The table has four sturdy, semicircular or "D-shaped" wooden legs. These are attached directly to the outer edge of the tabletop. This type of leg design with clean lines gives the table a modernist look. The placement of the legs at the corners also provides maximum legroom.
114 cm in diameter and 75 cm high
162 cm long when the recessed center section is extended
Minor signs of use; a scratch on the tabletop has been repaired (see close-up)
