480 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Antique Masonic set comprising a blue moiré fabric sash, richly embroidered with Masonic symbols, accompanied by its original documents. The documents mention the Floréal Lodge, Étampes Lodge, as well as the Grand Orient of France, with dates ranging from 1929 to 1932. They notably record an initiation in 1929, a degree promotion in 1930, and affiliation in 1931, with official conferral at the headquarters of the Grand Orient of France in Paris in 1932. The sash features an embroidered design of Masonic symbols on a blue moiré background. The reverse, in black fabric, is adorned with a motif representing a skull and crossbones. Condition consistent with age: creases, wrinkles, minor wear, and handling marks visible on the fabric and documents. The original documents are
