Description

Important wrought iron lectern - 19th century. Entirely hand-forged. This beautiful wrought iron lectern showcases remarkable 19th-century craftsmanship. The structure, richly adorned with scrolls and decorative motifs, is centered by an elegant fleur-de-lis, a classic symbol of French decorative art. The inclined top, designed to hold a book or sheet music, is framed by exquisitely delicate openwork. Two lateral arms, forming candle holders, enhance its decorative and functional character. The slightly twisted central shaft rests on a tripod base with scrolls, ensuring stability and elegance. The iron retains a beautiful antique patina, attesting to its authenticity and age. Dimensions: Height: 157 cm Width: 48 cm (excluding candle holders). Shipping within
